

Alexandria Gazette.

MONDAY EVENING, NOV. 1, 1909.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:27 and sets at 4:59.
High water at 11:15 a. m. and 11:27 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section increasing cloudiness and warmer tonight, rain and cooler Tuesday, increasing southerly winds.

THE ELECTION.

All arrangements for the election tomorrow have been made, and the polls will be opened at the usual places at 8:27 a. m. and close at 4:59 p. m.

Apart from governor, and other state officers, members of the House of Delegates and city and county officers will be chosen throughout the state. As has been the case for some years, Alexandria has no disposition to change her present officers, and only one democratic candidate has an opponent. A resident of the First ward is anxious to be elected mayor of wood and bark in the place of the present incumbent. This is a good omen, and shows that this city has officers in which the utmost confidence is placed—men who have ever shown themselves worthy of the same.

The democratic committee sometime ago declared the present incumbents candidates to succeed themselves, no competitors for their positions having appeared. The following is the ticket:

For Governor
WILLIAM HODGES MANN
Of Nottingham.
For Lieutenant Governor
J. TAYLOR ELLYSON
Of Richmond City.
For Attorney General
SAMUEL W. WILLIAMS
Of Wayne County.
For Secretary of the Commonwealth
B. O. JAMES
Of Richmond City.
For Treasurer
A. W. HARMAN
Of Rockbridge County.
For Superintendent of Public Instruction
JOHN D. EGGLESTON
Of Prince Edward County.
For Commissioner of Agriculture
GEO. W. KOLKER
Of Augusta County.
For House of Delegates
ROBINSON MONROE
Of Alexandria.

The following are the candidates for office in this city: Auditor, E. F. Price; city treasurer, T. W. Robinson; commonwealth's attorney, S. G. Brent; city attorney, S. P. Fisher; city sergeant, R. H. Cox; clerk of gas, J. B. Waller; collector of taxes, P. F. Gorman; inspector of lumber, S. O. Swain; messenger of wood and bark, Carter Smith; magistrate, 1st ward, L. H. Thompson; 3d, Julius Pelton; 4th, G. O. Sipple. There is no candidate for magistrate in the 2d ward.

The city democratic committee have done all they possibly could to bring out as large a vote as possible, and they have sent circulars to all democrats urging them to cast their ballots. It is hoped that each and every member of the party will heed their request. The circular says: "In order to maintain the supremacy of the democratic party and thereby secure a continuation of a clean and honest administration of governmental affairs in this old commonwealth, it is of the utmost importance that a full party vote be cast on the day of election. The committee wishes to call to attention the death of the democratic candidate for secretary of the commonwealth, which will make it necessary for you to run your pencil entirely through each of the names on the printed ballot under that head, and insert the name of B. O. James, who has been chosen by the state committee in the place of the deceased candidate." The socialists have candidates for every office on the state ticket.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Opera House tonight Mr. W. F. Main presents Mrs. Guy Johnson in a beautiful western drama, entitled "Tris, or Beyond the Rockies." This is one of the most startling plays ever put on at this house and deserves a large crowd.

As will be seen by their advertisement the Surprise Theatre management open by request an entire new and up-to-date moving picture exhibit, eliminating the vaudeville feature. This house has the reputation of presenting good pictures and those to be seen tonight and this week will be no exception.

KING'S DAUGHTERS.

The convention of the King's Daughters, which was held last week in Hampton, came to a close Friday night. The next meeting will be held in Staunton. Following are the state officers elected for the ensuing year: State secretary, Mrs. Clarence G. Barton, of Richmond; recording secretary, Miss Elizabeth Neely, of Portsmouth; treasurer, Mrs. R. W. Price, of Petersburg; members of the board at large, Mrs. John O. Byington, Hampton; Miss Mary Monroe, Alexandria, and Mrs. Sallie C. Dey, Norfolk.

TOOK THE HONORS.

At the meeting in Berryville last week of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church, Alexandria carried off most of the laurels. This city was chosen as the next meeting place and the following Alexandria ladies were chosen officers: Miss Sallie Stuart, president; Mrs. Arthur S. Lloyd, vice president; Mrs. George S. French, secretary, and Mrs. Eleanor W. Howard, assistant secretary. Miss Angus Crawford, of the Theological Seminary, was chosen secretary of the Piedmont convocation.

DOGS KILLED.

A northbound electric train ran over and killed a dog on King street, between Royal and Pitt, early this morning. The mangled animal lay on the track until an incoming train passed over it, dragging it toward Royal street, scattering blood and flesh over a space of many yards.

An automobile from Washington struck and killed a dog in Fairfax county, a short distance south of Hunting creek bridge, yesterday afternoon.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY.
[Judge J. B. T. Thornton, presiding.]
Marbury vs. Jones: suit for the possession of the strip of land on Prince street east of Pitt; jury and case in progress.

Election day being a holiday in this state, banks here will be closed tomorrow. Saloons will also be closed that day.

EASILY DEFEATED BY A. A. C.

The Alexandria Athletic Club's fast football eleven rolled up their largest score of the season Saturday afternoon on the north Alfred street grounds against the coast artillery team from Fort Washington by the score of 50 to 0. Not once during the game did the soldiers have possession of the ball in the local's territory. By a series of trick plays and forward passes and several on side kicks Alexandria managed to roll up a total of 34 points in the first half. This was by far the prettiest exhibition of the open game ever seen upon the local gridiron. The second half was hard fought from start to finish, the visitors demanding a ten minute period that they might catch a boat, thus the small score in this half, the Alexandrians making 16 points. The line up:

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Eaton presiding.]
The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Matthew Williams, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct and vagrancy, was sent to the work house for six months.

William Lewis, colored, charged with assaulting Rebecca Lewis, colored, was dismissed.

David Cumberland and Virginia Vanpelt, charged with fast driving, forfeited their collateral by failing to appear.

A white man, charged with being drunk on the street, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

A young white man, charged with furnishing boys with whiskey, was fined $50.

A man, charged with using threatening language toward his wife, was dismissed.

GIVEN A LONG TERM.

Matthew Williams was before the Police Court again this morning charged with drunken and disorderly conduct at the station house. Mat is a member of a gang who often lodge at the station house, but orders have recently been issued excluding them from that place. He appeared last night under the influence of liquor and was refused entertainment. Williams would not leave when ordered out, and said there was no law to exclude him from the station house. Officer Gill attempted to put him out, but Williams resisted the officer and broke the latter's watch in the tussle. The officer was brought before the Police Court this morning when he was sentenced to six months in the work house.

HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

A home missionary society was organized as an auxiliary to Roberts Chapel, Methodist Episcopal Church, last week for the purpose of raising the church's appropriation to be furnished to the parent body for home missions. Julia Barrett was chosen chairman; Nannie Spriggs, vice chairman; Magous, L. Robinson, secretary; Mary Ross, treasurer, and George T. Preston, chairman of refreshment committee. It was decided to give a literary entertainment in the church, and a mission supper in the lecture room on Thanksgiving night. Rev. Dr. Geo. W. W. Jenkins, ex-officio chairman, presided at the meeting which organized the auxiliary.

CLOSES HIS CAMPAIGN.

Mr. Joseph L. Crapper, of this city, candidate on the republican ticket for state treasurer, closed the campaign at Ballston Saturday night. He was in the city today in high spirits over the way he was received at the fifteen different points at which he has spoken. He said the democrats had been very kind to him, allowing him to use the courthouse at every meeting. In his speech on Saturday night he paid a high tribute to Auditor Morton Mayne, but criticized the system on which the state's business was run. He says he has conducted a conservative and dignified campaign and was proud of his reception, especially as the nomination for treasurer was unopposed.

FINED FIFTY DOLLARS.

One night last week a crowd of youngsters more or less under the influence of liquor, gathered on St. Asaph street, near Prince, and for a time made night hideous. One of the party in this manner, cut his hand, which bled profusely, and gore attracted the attention of passersby next morning. The police went to work on the case, and this morning they brought a young man into the Police Court charged with furnishing whiskey to the boys. The evidence of the youngsters substantiated the charge, and Justice Eaton imposed the minimum fine—$50.

FORFEITED THEIR COLLATERAL.

Officers Beach and Talbot yesterday arrested a man named David Cumberland, of Hyattsville, Md., and Virginia Vanpelt, living in the northeastern section of the city, charged with fast driving. The man and woman left collateral for their appearance this morning, but when the case was called they failed to appear and forfeited their deposits.

CARDINALS WIN.

The Cardinal Athletic Club journeyed to Washington yesterday and defeated the Mohawk Athletic Club on the Seventeenth and D streets, southeast, grounds by the score of 6 to 0. The game was witnessed by a large crowd, who occupied the field and prevented the progress of the game. The C. A. C. carried about 150 rooters to cheer them to victory.

MUSICAL.

Among the numbers to be sung at the musical to be given by the choir of Christ Church in the Young People's Building on Thursday evening are the popular quartette from Verdi's "Rigoletto," the Madrigal from "The Mikado," and Fioton's "Good-night," from "Martha."

Mr. Moore in former years was engineer on the Old Virginia Midland Road, now known as the Southern, and was one of the oldest men connected with that road. He was a brother to the late Wm. A. Moore, of Charlottesville. Mr. Moore is survived by a wife, two daughters and one son—Mrs. W. W. Payne, of Harrisonburg, wife of the late Capt. Wm. W. Payne, conductor on the Southern Railway, Mrs. L. A. Howard and Engineer Wm. A. Moore, of this city. His funeral will take place tomorrow morning from 609 Queen street.

Will Be Resented, Says Slomp.

Denouncing Mr. Glass's charges against Capt. Kent as "character assassination" and predicting a republican majority on Tuesday, Republican State Chairman C. B. Slomp last night said:

"Although Capt. Kent was answered fully and satisfactorily the charges which have been advanced, yet there is a much deeper and more significant aspect to the case which every Virginian must consider. The charges were publicly made only a few hours before election. As soon as Mr. Kent learned of the specific accusations, he gave the public the fullest possible explanation. This explanation was straightforward and without ambiguity, just as was to be expected of a man whose whole career has been honest and without taint. 'There had been sufficient time for all charges.'"

Mr. Kent ran for lieutenant governor four years ago, and he was nominated for governor more than three months ago.

There was no reason then for waiting till the eve of election to spring this sensational and mysterious conception of a transaction satisfactorily concluded over a quarter of a century ago.

Accusation Against Lewis

"A similar eleventh hour accusation was brought against Judge Lewis four years ago. On the very eve of election, words were put in his mouth which he had not said and statements he had not uttered. The same method was resorted to at the close of the primary by the 'machine' in coupling Mr. Tucker with conditions and circumstances untrue and unjust."

"It has come to this in our political campaigns in Virginia: That if the republicans show any strength, if it seems necessary to get out the democratic vote, resort must be had to the most despicable methods and devices, which discourage clean, honest men from aspiring to public office."

"The tactics adopted by the democratic 'machine,' not only against the republicans, but against a large faction of their own party, should be, and I believe will be, resented at the polls tomorrow. Character assassinations in Virginia should cease. The people's verdict should be on party policy and principles of public legislation and administration."

"I firmly believe that the voters of this state, guided by fair play and justice, will repudiate the democratic methods and will give the whole republican ticket a thorough vindication, as shown in a substantial majority, as well as increased membership in the next legislature of Virginia."

The Old Ladies' Home committee will meet at Lee Camp Hall tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.
